Any dividends and/or paid-up additions cash value is included in the available loan value. If funds are withdrawn, the available loan value would be reduced by that amount. If both the Maximum loan and Dividends/Cash Value of Paid-up Insurance boxes are checked, a withdrawal will be processed first, with any remaining value processed as a loan.

If your policy/certificate is classified as a Modified Endowment Contract, loans and withdrawals may create taxable gain. If you wish to have taxes withheld, please complete the Tax Withholding section. If the loan or withdrawal creates taxable income and the Tax Withholding section is left blank, we will NOT withhold taxes on any reportable gain, provided your Social Security or Tax ID number is on file.
